

ITINERARY 1 night and 2 days

Day 01: Corbett National Park

Meals: lunch & dinner in Tiger Camp

Drive from Delhi / Nainital / Dehradun, arriving at Tiger Camp by noon for lunch. Or arrive early morning by train. After lunch, you will be taken for a 4WD safari to Sitabani or Bijrani or Jhirna range forest for tiger tracking and wildlife viewing. The duration of safari is about three to four hours and is conducted early morning or in the afternoon till sunset. Each jeep seats four persons comfortably. Besides the visitors, the jeep has an expert driver and a nature guide. Overnight stay in comfortable cottage / room in Tiger Camp.

Day 02: Corbett National Park

Meals: breakfast in Tiger Camp

Drive in an open truck for Dhangarhi gate for entry to Dhikala tourism zone in a 4WD. The safari through the stately dense Sal jungle and the wildlife adventure of Corbett Park begins. A great opportunity for viewing wildlife, especially the tiger in its natural habitat.

Arrive at the main tourist complex, Dhikala. Lunch (optional) and relax a bit in the serene, lingering quietness of the park and capture the panoramic expanse on your camera. Afternoon safari on a track along the periphery of the core area. An exciting drive through the unforgettable, sylvan beauty of the Khinanauli range offers wildlife viewing in plenty and a chance sighting of the elusive tiger. Return to Tiger Camp in the afternoon. Day at leisure or opt for a guided nature walk or you may opt for an elephant ride at Tiger Camp and you will have ample time to study the behaviour of this magnificent and intelligent mammal.

After an early dinner (payable directly), you will be transferred to Ramnagar railway station to connect overnight air-conditioned train at 2100 hours, arriving old Delhi railway station the next morning at 0500 hours. OR drive back to Delhi (6 hours) at noon, arriving in the evening. You may extend your trip to other regions of Kumaon with us.
